

One Work Composers

There are a number of composers who are only known by the general classical listening audience for one piece. From some, it is deservedly the only piece that is known or regularly played by performers today, for others it unfairly casts into a shadow over other equally good (if not perhaps more significant) works by them.

A. Adolfe Adam

Le Toreador Opera Overture (YouTube)

Another Opera is Le postillon de Lonjumeau

Welsh National Opera Orchestra & Richard Bonyng

Giselle (Valse) (Popular Ballet Music) A3

Sofia Philharmonic Orchestra & Vasil Stefanov

B. Paul Dukas

2nd movement of Symphony in C major (Music of PaulDukas) B4

Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra & Jesus Lopez-Cobos

The Sorcerer's Apprentice (Favourite Requests Volume II) A1

Slovak Radio Symphony Orchestra & Kenneth Jean

Used in Disney's film Fantasia, this is one of the most famous pieces in the repertoire.

Dukas was an absolute perfectionist, who destroyed much of his music, which is a pity judging from these two fine works.

C. Christian Sinding

Legende Op46 (Sibelius Violin Concerto) A6

Dung-Suk Kang, Czechoslovakian Symphony Orchestra and Adrian Leaper

The Rustle of Spring Op32 No.3 (From You Tube)

Knut Eric Jensen

D. Kurt Weill

Symphony No.2 (Sostenuto – Allegro molto) Weill: Symphonies Nos. 1 and 2 A5

Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra & Marin Alsop

Mack the Knife (from The Threepenny Opera) The Unforgettable Louis Armstrong TC

Louis Armstrong

E. Heitor Villa-Lobos

Concerto for Guitar (Allegro precioso) (C21)

Julian Bream, LSO & Andre Previn

Bachianas Brasileira No.5 for Soprano & 8 Cellos (Youtube)

Anna Moffo; American Symphony Orchestra & Leopold Stokowski;

F. Charles-Marie Widor

Suite for Flute & Piano Op34 (Faure Widor The French Recital) B2

James Galway, Christopher O'Reilly

Toccata from Organ Symphony No. 5 in F Minor Op42 No.1 (Saint-Saens:Organ Symphony,

Widor:Toccata Finale A112

Jane Parker Smith, The LSO & Serge Baudo

G. Tomaso Albinoni

Oboe Concerto in D minor (Adagio) (Woodwind) A9

Krzysztof Wroniszewski, Concert Avenna & Marik Ermler

Adagio for Strings and Organ in G Minor (The Best of Julian Lloyd Webber Made in England)

A5

Julian Lloyd-Webber, English Chamber Orchestra & Nicholas Cleobury

Who hasn't heard this. Albinoni provided the basis for this famous melody, which C20th scholar & composer Giazotto elaborated into a piece of music.