Report on Behalf of the Chairman

We enjoyed another successful Summer Social in July. It was again very hot but Paddy Collins had been in early and opened all the doors well in advance of the first members to arrive, which made the hall pleasantly comfortable. The food was delicious and entertainment by the Musical Ensemble very enjoyable. The quiz had joint winners both managing to guess every answer, Mike Weston and Steve Stevenson (a new member).

Sadly it seems Dusty Roades illness will not allow him to return to us as Vice Chairman, the position has now been permanently filled by Lilia Bogle, who has been standing in for Dusty since he was first taken ill. Our thoughts are with him and we are all sensible of the great contribution he has made to our U3A over many years.

Another person who has been a tireless worker on behalf of our organisation is Beryl Carr; unfortunately she is unable to continue as Outings Organiser and is going to be standing down at the end of this year. If there are members out there who would like to take on the job of organising trips, weekend breaks and holidays please come forward, your help would be much appreciated.

As well as the usual annual meeting we are thinking of holding a workshop for current and prospective Group Coordinators. Coordinators are a vital part of running the U3A, we wouldn't be able to continue without them, and we offer the workshop in an effort to support them and to address any concerns they might have.

We are looking forward to another year, to welcoming new members and welcoming back existing members. Thank you all for making our U3A such a success.

thompson163@gmail.com Dusty Roades was a long time member of the Poetry Writing Group.

 Funny and often unexpected here are two of his recent poems.

A Ceramic Folk Box

I would put in my box
 The sound of the Britannia coconut dancers
 The coloured ribbons of the Padstow floral dance
 I would put in it a delicate Lucie Rei vase
 And the coarse form of a Bernard Leach bowl
 It would also have the smell of the flowers of a Derbyshire well dressing
 And the tang of a horse's hoof as the farrier applies the red hot shoe
 On Plough Monday
 It would be made of green clay from Soke of Peterborough
 And glazed with burnt ash from the silver birch tree
 I would include the taste of freshly baked Simnel cake I would bury it beneath an oak tree to be found in a hundred years.

Seven Ages of Woman

Smiling a secret smile as if only she knows what is on her mind, playing with Barbie and Sindy. Then Dancing classes, everyone a potential ballerina, borrowing mother's make-up and shoes. The teenager, flirting with the boys and buying the latest pop records, falling in love with the dishy male geography teacher.
 Then the secretary or hairdresser earning enough to spend on a great Saturday night. The radiant mum to be then mother of two rascal children, feeding the electricity meter and hiding when the rent man comes.
 Middle age mum, children grown up and hubby working late each night, a meal out on a Saturday evening and a cruise for holidays.
 A silent widow, hubby gone, friends around to tea, the odd day out with Grandchildren.
 Lonely old age, just the telephone for company, photo album to jog memories of long ago, talks over the garden fence and at last becoming a memory herself.

Family History

We are a small friendly group which meets twice a month in the downstairs room at the Library on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month from 10.15 – 11.30. We are interested in not only finding who are ancestors were, but in researching their lives. Many of us in the group find our own families are not very interested in our discoveries, particularly the younger ones. Being part of the group means meeting others who share our interest and who want to hear about our discoveries.

If this sounds like something that might interest you please get in touch.

Art Appreciation

We have enjoyed some very interesting exhibitions during the Spring and Summer months: Van Gogh at Tate Britain, The Renaissance Nude at the Royal Academy and Treasures of the Museum at Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery, together with accompanying lectures and film slides.

On September 6th I'll be giving a talk on The Dark Side of Goya and on September 19th we will be visiting Apsley House, the former home of Arthur Wellesley, Duke of Wellington, to see his famous collection which includes portraits of the Duke by Goya. On October 4th group member, Tina Brown, will be giving a talk entitled: The Early Renaissance in Italy and Northern Europe. On October 8th, we will be visiting Burghley House, Stamford to view their art collection. Another group member, Paul Higgins, will be giving a talk on Claude Monet at our November 1st meeting and later that month we are planning to revisit Upton House near Banbury.

For details of future talks and visits go to our page on the U3A website.

Pam Tonge

French (Absolute Beginners)

We are intending to introduce a New Group to replace the "French Beginners 2 Group" which has now ceased to function. Our intention is to attract those Members who perhaps last studied the French language whilst at school (possibly many years ago), and now seek to visit France as a tourist, and would be more comfortable in being able to speak sufficient French when using Shops/Restaurants/Hotels etc: We do not intend to study the language in depth to enable us to fully communicate and hold conversations, but merely to learn the essentials to make ourselves basically understood when travelling around on holiday.

We have the services of a coach (fluent in speaking French) for help, where necessary. We will meet locally in a private house on a weekly basis (yet to be decided). Our meetings are conducted in a friendly and relaxed fashion.

Flower Arranging for Fun

A flower arranging group meet on the 4th Thursday from 14.00 – 16.00 pm at Gawcott Church.

Anyone interested in joining this very enjoyable group contact:

Sally Chittenden

flower.arranging2@buckinghamu3a.org.uk 01280 812152

Venue Information

There is now a room available at Tesco Superstore on the London Road. It's free and is suitable for groups of 16-20 members. It is a very pleasant room with good light. The group has to be signed in through the Customer Service Counter so it is best if all the group meet in the shop and then go through together. For further information contact:

Tesco Buckingham

0345 677 9092

Open Meetings

Buckingham U3A hold open meetings on the fourth Wednesday of every month except August. In July and December the meeting takes the form of a Social with entertainment and refreshments. November is the AGM and provides an opportunity to see the work produced by creative groups. These meetings are now free, including socials so please come along. Open Meetings provide a good opportunity to see notice of new groups, speak to the committee, make bookings/payments for trips and theatre visits, and meet friends. There is always a speaker; In September the subject is Slip slidin' Around...The Trombone in Jazz by Tad Newton and in October Victorian Literature by Dr Keith Hooper

Antiques and Collectables

This group has a new venue, meeting now in Padbury Village Hall. The meetings are still on the 1st Tuesday in the month from 14.00 – 16.00 pm.

At the first meeting in September they had a speaker discussing Moorcroft Pottery. In October they would like anyone with an interest in small antique or collectable items to bring one or two along to the meeting and discuss their collection. It is hoped that an antiques expert may be found to further enrich the discussion. If any members know of such an expert or have expertise of their own, they would be very welcome to attend.

Although the group is progressing well it is still looking for a new Coordinator.

Having now moved to this new venue they are able to accommodate many more members so if you think it sounds interesting please go along.

Theatre News

In the last few months we have been very lucky to have seen a variety of shows including opera, ballet, 2 musicals, and an Agatha Christie play.

Magic Flute – Welsh National Opera. A small group of us braved Milton Keynes on a Saturday, and had an afternoon of wonderful music, singing and drama. A very simple set, so easy to transport, and striking costumes. A successful venture.

Remains of the Day – We saw this in Oxford. It was very cleverly presented with the pre war scenes, and those of the 1950's, with many actors playing other characters, by the change of a hat or a coat for example. The butler, who has given unstinting loyalty for numerous years to Darlington Hall, was played by Stephen Boxer and the former housekeeper by Niamh Cusack.

Victoria – (Northern Ballet) This is how this one was reported to me. “The choreography and the talent of the dancers in interpreting the depth of emotion really stood out in this production. A word of warning though – it is really worth seeking out a fairly detailed synopsis beforehand – or buying a programme and reading it! I think quite a few of us were struggling to follow all but the most obvious storylines, and in retrospect realise that we missed quite a few nuances! “

Les Miserables – I think we all knew the songs, and the story had been clarified, for some, by the recent BBC series. There was wonderful singing, clever staging- with some aspects not seen at the London production. The scene with the killings at the Barricade was especially poignant with a streak of light focusing on one actor at a time as they fell. A standing ovation was given to the cast, who all looked as they had thoroughly enjoyed the show too.

I have had one e mail saying that 'it was amazing and by far my favourite'.

Hair – I think that this was a wonderful chance for people to be transported back to the 60's. A real trip down memory lane.

The Mousetrap- I was told it was very enjoyable, humorous too and played to a packed house.

U3A Music Ensemble

Are you learning, or have you played an orchestral instrument? Why not try out our merry band? We welcome novice and rusty players as well as those who play competently! Our repertoire is quite varied, from relatively straight forward well known tunes, to rather more challenging (but hopefully still enjoyable!) pieces. We meet at Maids Moreton Church at 2pm on the first, third and fifth Wednesdays of the month. We enjoy sharing our music: our latest gig was at the beautiful garden of Carolyn Cumming for the 'Garden near a Church' day in the North Bucks Benefice. We have also played at the Maids Moreton Church BBQ and for U3A socials. If anyone would like to have us play for a social event, please get in touch with Sandra Truscott or me.

Digital Photography

Taken on a River Ouse Cruise at Bedford this photograph shows the Digital Photography Group on an outing to take Canal Boat Pictures. But - the Cream Teas took precedence and more Scones were eaten than pictures taken. No-one fell in so all in all a very enjoyable trip.

Web Page Information

Just a reminder to Group Coordinators that it is useful to new members, and for anyone wishing to join a new group, if the information on the Website about each group is up-dated now and then especially when there are changes of venue or coordinator. Craft Groups could perhaps show pictures of their work as well as other information. It all makes the Website more interesting. At the AGM in November Groups can book tables to display craft work, or give extra information about visits, talks or anything else of interest. Be sure to book a table for your Group.

Local History Group 1

For our last visit before our August "break" a group of us had a very interesting visit to the Buckinghamshire County Museum in Aylesbury. We travelled by the X60 bus and the weather was excellent.

Although the museum is small it is very well laid out and interesting - the Lenborough Hoard display is worth the visit by itself. The ladies seemed to enjoy the jewellery cabinets and the village life display was really fascinating. Thornborough's medieval bridge also featured.

We also visited the church, which is a stone's throw away. Again very interesting. We were also just able to enjoy the last part of the lunch time concert. If you are in Aylesbury, both are worth a visit and both are free. We can recommend the teas!

Other recent activities - all of local history interest - have included visits to Tingewick, Westbury and a talk on a personal childhood, throughout the seasons, in Padbury.

A different idea was for group members to share their own family histories, many showing items of local interest.

Our meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of each month. On the first Thursday we visit places of interest and on the third Thursday we meet in Maids Morton Village Hall.

We have now finalised our programme for September to December with a visit to Turweston on 5th September, a talk by a "man of the road" on 19th September entitled "A Tramp Comes to Town". This promises to be one not to miss. On 3rd October we have a visit to Deanshanger for a talk by a member of the Deanshanger Village Heritage Society and on the 17th we will be in our meeting hall for a talk entitled "Hartridges - A Light Hearted History with Anecdotes". In November we have a talk by two well known locals, "London to Kathmandu by Double Decker Bus" and on the third Thursday the talk will be "Milton Keynes - Last of the New Towns". We only meet the once in December for a social event - but it does include a quiz cunningly designed to test our members knowledge of the surrounding area. Our team is now busy planning next years activities and talks. - watch this space!

We welcome new members - just contact us via the U3A email link
